

Opening Video

Hello! My name is _____, and I would like to welcome you to ___Practice___. We're about to take you on a short guided video tour that will help you understand more about your upcoming cataract procedure.

Our practice, in partnership with Alcon, a global leader in eye-care, will provide you with information on cataracts and the options that are available to improve your vision after cataract surgery.

There is plenty to learn and we are here to help you understand the variety of treatment types and premium lens choices we have to offer.

We request that you watch all the brief videos that are provided that will not only inform you, but will help you to make important decisions about your treatment options and comfortably participate in discussions with our team during your appointment.

Please feel free to share these short videos links with family members and friends as well. We look forward to working with you on your personalized treatment plan.
